

TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 provides that “no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.” Related statutes provide protection against discrimination on the basis of sex, age, disability, and socioeconomic status.

Are your rights being violated?

If you believe you have been discriminated against because of your race, color, national origin, sex, disability, sexual orientation, religion or age, you may file a written complaint with the OCPW Title VI Coordinator. Complete and email, mail or deliver in person the Title VI Complaint form, within 180 days of the alleged discrimination. The Complaint form can be accessed using the QR Code provided.
